THE OUTCOME

Of the government action in its relation with the parliament

For the 2024-2025 legislative year the 11th legislative term (2021-2026)

His Majesty King Mohammed VI, May God Assist Him

Royal speech of His Majesty King Mohammed VI May God Assist Him for the occasion of inaugurating the first session of the fourth legislative year 2024-2025 of the eleventh parliamentary term 2021- 2026

Praise be to God May peace and blessings be upon the Prophet, His Kith and Kin

Honorable members of the Parliament,

It gives me pleasure to address you today, at the opening of this legislative year; and through my message to you, the various bodies, institutions and citizens, regarding the latest developments concerning the Moroccan Sahara, which is the foremost cause of all Moroccans.

Since I ascended the throne, I have been saying, with respect to the question of our territorial integrity, that we are bound to move from a management stage, to a stage in which we change the situation, both domestically and at the external level, all dimensions considered.

I have also called for a shift in our approach, from reacting to developments to taking the initiative and being decisive and proactive.

With that in mind, we have worked for years, with resolve and patience, guided by a clear vision. We have used all the means at our disposal to publicise the just position of our country, as well as our historical and legitimate rights regarding our Sahara, notwithstanding a challenging and complex international environment.

Today, the truth is out, by the Grace of the Almighty. In fact, truth always prevails over any other claims, as do just causes.

Almighty God says: "And say, 'Truth has now arrived, and falsehood perished: for falsehood is (by its nature) bound to perish'". True is the Word of the Almighty.

In this regard, the French Republic now supports the sovereignty of the Kingdom over the entire territory of the Sahara. It also backs the Autonomy Initiative within the framework of Morocco's territorial integrity as the sole basis for resolving this artificial regional conflict.

I wish to take this opportunity to offer, personally and on behalf of the Moroccan people, our most sincere thanks and to express our gratitude to France and to His Excellency President Emmanuel Macron, for this unequivocal support for the Sahara as a Moroccan territory.

Through this positive development, justice and legitimacy have been upheld, and so have Morocco's historical rights, especially since this recognition emanates from a major country, which is a permanent member of the Security Council and an influential player on the global stage.

What is more, France is fully aware of the ins and outs of this regional conflict.

This recognition also supports the efforts exerted at the United Nations level to lay the groundwork for a political process that would lead to a final settlement of this issue within the framework of Moroccan sovereignty.

*Honourable Members of Parliament,
France's position is part of the positive momentum that characterises the question of the Moroccan Sahara. That momentum confirms Morocco's sovereignty over its territory and increases international support for the Autonomy Initiative.*

By the Grace of Almighty God, we have been able to secure the recognition of influential countries which are permanent members of the Security Council, such as the United States of America and France. In addition to that, we take pride in the stances of Arab and African sister nations, which have been clearly and steadfastly backing the Kingdom's territorial integrity, especially the countries that have opened consulates in Laayun and Dakhla.

In parallel, the Autonomy Initiative - as the sole basis for reaching a final solution to this conflict within the framework of Moroccan sovereignty - enjoys broad support from an increasing number of countries from around the world.

They include our friend, Spain - a country which knows the finer details of the issue, and whose stance on the matter has significant political and historical implications - as well as the majority of European Union members.

I wish to express my deep appreciation to all our friends and partners for supporting Morocco's foremost cause. I also want to thank the countries that have trade relations with, or invest in, the Kingdom's southern provinces, which are an integral part of our national territory.

In doing so, they are contributing to the economic, social and cultural development underway in the Moroccan Sahara, thereby reinforcing the status of the southern provinces as a hub for interaction and exchange between Morocco and the rest of Africa.

This puts our southern provinces front and centre in the strategic, continental initiatives that I have launched, such as the Morocco-Nigeria Gas Pipeline project, the African Atlantic countries initiative, and the initiative designed to enable African Sahel countries to have access to the Atlantic Ocean.

*Honourable Members of Parliament,
Despite all that has been achieved, the next stage requires further mobilization and vigilance on the part of everyone. The goal is to keep consolidating our country's position, to publicise our just cause, and to thwart our enemies' manoeuvres.*

Having said that, we need to explain the fundamental elements underpinning the Moroccan position to the few countries whose stances on the issue still go against the logic of law and history. We need to convince them through legal, political and historical evidence as well as spiritual arguments that confirm the legitimacy of the Sahara as a Moroccan territory.

Concerted efforts are required on the part of all national institutions and bodies, as well as governmental, party and civic organisations. Greater coordination is also needed between them to increase efficiency and ensure the effectiveness of their action.

I am sure you are aware - distinguished members of Parliament - of the effective role of party and parliamentary diplomacy in securing wider recognition of the Sahara as a Moroccan territory, and in increasing support for the Autonomy Initiative as the only solution to this regional conflict.

I therefore expect greater coordination between the two houses of Parliament in this regard, and the creation of appropriate internal structures with qualified human resources. The standards of competence and expertise also need to be taken into account in forming delegations, both for bilateral meetings and for participation in regional and international forums.

Distinguished Members of Parliament,

Our achievements to bring this issue to a final close and the economic and social development witnessed in our southern provinces are the result of the solidarity and the efforts of all Moroccans in order to consolidate our national unity and preserve the nation's territorial integrity.

I would be remiss if I did not commend the efforts made by our diplomatic service, by the various institutions concerned, by the nation's driving forces and by proud Moroccans - inside and outside the country - to defend the legitimate rights of their homeland and face up to the manoeuvres of our enemies.

I also wish to express my gratitude and appreciation to our sons and daughters in the Sahara for their unwavering loyalty to their homeland, for their attachment to their sacred religious and national values, and for the sacrifices they make to ensure the Kingdom's stability and territorial integrity.

Before concluding, let me stress that Morocco will never waver in its position. Our country will remain open to its Maghreb and regional environment, thereby contributing to the achievement of joint development, and to the security and stability of the peoples in the region.

Almighty God says: "O you who believe! If you will aid (the cause of) God, He will aid you, and plant your feet firmly". True is the Word of God.

Wassalamu alaikum warahmatullah wabarakatuh

Preamble

The first session of the fourth legislative year (2024–2025) of the eleventh parliamentary term (2021–2026) was inaugurated by a Royal Speech delivered by His Majesty King Mohammed VI, may God assist and protect Him, on Friday, October 11th, 2024. In His address, His Majesty highlighted the positive developments regarding the Moroccan Sahara issue, praising particularly the constructive position of the French Republic on this vital national cause. In His own words, may God preserve Him: "The French Republic now recognizes the Kingdom's sovereignty over the entire territory of the Sahara and supports the Autonomy Initiative, under Moroccan territorial integrity, as the sole basis for resolving this fabricated regional conflict."

His Majesty further stated: "Thanks to God, we have succeeded in securing recognition from influential countries, including permanent members of the United Nations Security Council, such as the United States of America and France."

In this context, His Majesty urged Members of Parliament to pay close attention to activating mechanisms for parallel diplomacy. He stated: "You are well aware, Members of Parliament, of the instrumental role played by partisan and parliamentary diplomacy in gaining further recognition of the Moroccanness of the Sahara and in expanding support for the Autonomy Initiative as the only solution to this regional dispute. Therefore, we call for enhanced coordination between both Houses of Parliament in this regard, and the establishment of suitable internal structures, staffed with qualified human resources selected based on merit and expertise, whether for bilateral meetings or participation in regional and international forums."

The publication of this report, which covers the fourth legislative year, aligns with the annual work introduced by the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government, in charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman. This report provides an overview of government actions in relation to Parliament, encompassing both the House of Representatives and the House of Councillors.

Through this initiative, the Ministry seeks to keep the national public opinion, researchers, and research and documentation institutions abreast of the outcome of its fieldwork on the parliamentary domain. In so doing, it purports to enrich and diversify the sources available for research in parliamentary law, a field that is currently gaining increasing interest among Moroccan scholars. Additionally, the Ministry is committed to providing necessary timely information through its website, which has been attracting a growing number of visitors due to its rich and comprehensive database of distinguished classified information and its collection of different reference documents relating either to legislation, government work oversight, or to the evaluation of public policies.

To carry out the tasks assigned to it, the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government, in charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman has spared no effort to follow up the government's parliamentary activities on daily basis. The Ministry strives to consolidate channels of communication and cooperation between the Government and Parliament for more harmony and synergy between these two constitutional institutions while fully respecting the principle of powers separation, cooperation and balance. This had clearly a positive impact on the government performance in its relation to the House of Representatives and the House of Councilors, and contributes to the richness of this achievement in terms of quality and quantity either at the level of legislation, government actions oversight, or evaluation of public policies.

I. Legislative Level: The legislative record for this year reflects significant legislative momentum, both quantitatively and qualitatively. The government was involved in its actualization seriously and responsibly alongside Parliament to support and supervise the major structural projects underway in our country, under the High Guidance of His Majesty King Mohammed VI, may God assist Him. This dynamic approach provided deeper meaning and added value to the legislative outcome thanks to the adopted impactful laws related to various aspects of the Kingdom's development trajectory.

Within this spirit, Parliament definitively adopted a total of 49 laws, of which 32 were passed unanimously and 17 by majority vote, out of 73 draft Laws submitted by the government to both Houses of Parliament (including 16 Draft Laws that remained under examination at closure of the third legislative year 2023/2024).

The enacted legal texts, approved by both Houses of Parliament during this year, support the extensive reform movement which our country witnesses. They supervised various areas, including the following by way of illustration:

In the Area of Rights and Liberties

This legislative year marked a significant milestone with the adoption of Organic Law No. 97.15. The latter outlines the conditions and procedures for exercising the right to strike more than half a century after this right was first constitutionalized in the 1962 Constitution. This is considered an important step toward regulating this right by defining its procedures and conditions, thereby ensuring a balance between the interests of workers and employers, preserving public order and keeping pace between the rights and obligations of all stakeholders involved.

In the Area of Justice

This legislative year has also witnessed the adoption of a set of legal texts which are the mainstay of the justice system in our country, most notably Law No. 02.23 on Civil Procedure, and Law No. 03.23, which amends and supplements Law No. 22.01 on Criminal Procedure. These two legal texts underwent comprehensive updates and revisions to be in congruence with the 2011 Constitution and ensure their compliance with relevant international conventions ratified by the Kingdom of Morocco.

Additionally, Parliament adopted a series of laws that further reflect the reform momentum which the justice system in our country is witnessing, particularly those that update and modernize the legal system governing certain legal and judicial professions, such as Organic Law No. 09.25 (amending and supplementing Organic Law No. 106.13 on the Statute of Judges) and Law No. 46.21 related to the organization of the profession of judicial officers.

In the Area of Social Protection

As part of the ongoing implementation of the great Royal project on social protection, Parliament adopted Law No. 02.24, which amends and supplements the Dahir (Royal Decree) bearing Law No. 1.72.184 of July 27, 1972 (corresponding Hijri date: 15 Jumada II 1392), on the Social Security System. This reform aims to restructure and strengthen the National Social Security Fund (CNSS) to enable it to effectively manage compulsory basic health insurance schemes.

In the Areas of Economy, Finance and Investment

In addition to adopting Finance Law No. 60.24 for the fiscal year 2025, marked by extensive discussions and constructive interaction between the Government and Members of Parliament regarding numerous proposed amendments. The Parliament adopted several important laws to consolidate transparency and good public finance governance, such as Settlement Law No. 07.25, related to the implementation of the Finance Law for the fiscal year 2023, and Law No. 14.25, amending and supplementing Law No. 47.06 on local authority taxation.

To enhance investment attractiveness, Parliament approved this year Law No. 22.24, which amends and supplements Law No. 47.18 on the reform of Regional Investment Centres (CRIs) and establishes Unified Regional Investment Commissions. This reform aims to strengthen the governance of CRIs, expand their prerogatives, streamline investors' appeal procedures, and address exceptions related to urban planning.

In the Area of Culture and National Heritage Protection

In this domain, Parliament adopted, this year, Law No. 18.23 on the cinema industry and the reorganization of the Moroccan Cinematographic Centre (CCM). This law aims at granting the CCM new responsibilities to foster the development of Morocco's cinema industry, promote the Kingdom as a leading destination for international film production, and rationalize sector management. Additionally, Law No. 33.22 on heritage protection was adopted. This law introduces important updates, including new definitions for various categories of cultural, natural, and geological heritage, in alignment with internationally recognized concepts and UNESCO's modern definitions. The law also calls for the creation of a National Heritage Inventory Register and the adoption of a Heritage Management Plan serving as a contractual framework among all stakeholders, outlining strategic orientations, programmes, implementation mechanisms, and funding modalities for administering and managing heritage.

In the Area of Sports

Parliament also adopted this year Law No. 35.25, which establishes the "Morocco 2030 Foundation". This legal and institutional framework is designed to ensure the successful organization of major international football events, primarily the FIFA World Cup 2030. The foundation is responsible for ensuring Morocco's compliance with its commitments outlined in the relevant bid documents, coordinating and monitoring the implementation of various projects. This is accomplished following a participatory approach with extensive participation from administrations, institutions, public enterprises, and local authorities, as well as civil society associations, the private sector, Moroccan Expatriates, the national football family, and African competencies.

In the Area of International Relations

During this legislative year, Parliament approved a total of 27 laws that ratify bilateral, regional, and multilateral agreements in line with Morocco's international commitments. These agreements consist of 19 bilateral and 8 multilateral conventions, covering such various domains as intermodal transport, justice, economy and taxes, institution, and human rights. This legislative activity aligns with the High Royal Directives aimed at consolidating and expanding Morocco's partnerships and cooperative ties with several brotherly and friendly nations, while enhancing the Kingdom's standing and influence At the regional, continental and international levels.

On Parliamentary Legislative Initiatives, and as part of its constitutional responsibilities, particularly those concerning the facilitation of dialogue and the reinforcement of coordination and cooperation between the executive and legislative branches, the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government, in charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman monitors and supports such initiatives. These initiatives constitute a key pillar of Parliament's legislative power, in accordance with the provisions of Article 78 of the Constitution.

In this context, the Ministry followed up on the processing of 109 draft laws submitted to Parliament this year, 99 of which were submitted to the House of Representatives, and 10 to the House of Councillors. Additionally, 367 draft laws remained under review after the third legislative year (300 in the House of Representatives and 67 in the House of Councillors).

This legislative dynamism, driven by the significant number of law proposals submitted by Parliament, resulted in notable government engagement. The House of Representatives definitively adopted one draft law that amends paragraph one of Article 6 of Law No. 65.00, which serves as the Basic Health Coverage Code, as received from the House of Councillors in a second reading.

The same House also approved two draft laws and referred them to the House of Councillors to complete the legislative process:

- A proposal to amend Article 19 of Law No. 15.01 on the Kafala (guardianship) of abandoned children, submitted by the Socialist Union of Popular Forces (USFP).
- A framework law proposal to amend Article 59 of Framework Law No. 51.17 relating to the Education, Training, and Scientific Research System, submitted by the Haraki (Popular Movement) group.
- However, the House of Representatives definitively rejected two draft laws:
- A proposal to amend Articles 2 and 4 of Law No. 41 regarding the conditions and procedures for benefiting from the Family Solidarity Fund.
- A proposal to amend and supplement Article 20 of Law No. 70.03, which serves as the Family Code (Moudawana), enacted by Dahir No. 1.04.22, dated 12 Dhu al-Hijjah 1424 (February 2004).

Additionally, the House of Representatives rejected 26 draft laws, which were then referred to the House of Councillors to complete the legislative procedure, and (24) draft laws were withdrawn from the aforementioned House.

Regarding governmental engagement with draft laws, the government has been keen on implementing the provisions of Article 23 of Organic Law No. 065.13, which governs the organization and management of government work and the legal status of its members. This article stipulates the allocation of a monthly meeting dedicated to reviewing legislative proposals submitted by Members of Parliament from both the majority and opposition, as well as the adoption of an official stance on them. To this end, the Technical Committee, established by Decree No. 2.23.965 on November 2nd, 2023, held a total of 10 meetings, during which 109 draft laws were examined. Additionally, the government convened 9 meetings to determine its legal position on 97 draft laws, reflecting its commitment to positively engage with parliamentary legislative initiatives within a framework of coordination and cooperation with the legislative institution. Notably, since the beginning of the current term, the government has held 34 meetings in which it reviewed 425 draft laws, underscoring the high importance placed on parliamentary legislative initiatives.

To ensure the effectiveness and efficiency of parliamentary work, the permanent parliamentary committees dedicated significant attention to reviewing draft laws and proposals submitted by the government. They held a total of 272 meetings: 178 in the House of Representatives and 94 in the House of Councillors. Additionally, 54 plenary legislative sessions were convened to study and vote for the legislative texts, including 33 sessions in the House of Representatives and 21 in the House of Councillors.

II. Oversight Function, this legislative year was characterized by a remarkable vitality in the relationship between the executive and legislative branches. This dynamism was especially evident in the government's responsiveness to questions and inquiries raised by Members of Parliament on critical issues of public interest. This approach, framed by constitutional and regulatory provisions, was exemplified by the presence of Ministers at weekly oral question sessions. They actively participated in these sessions and showed a strong willingness to answer written questions by regularly giving presentations before permanent parliamentary committees or by adhering to various other oversight mechanisms.

To enhance dialogue between the Government and Parliament on key public policy matters, the Head of Government continued to engage with Members of Parliament's inquiries amounting to sixty-nine (69) oral questions throughout nine (9) sessions: five (5) in the House of Representatives and four (4) in the House of Councillors. His responses addressed a wide range of issues, including follow-up questions from the representatives. He relied on data-driven approaches, utilizing indicative statistics and accurate information to highlight the positive impact of public policy outcomes, which align with the core priorities of the Government Program. This initiative aimed to reinforce and support various dimensions of public policy. The main thematic areas addressed during these sessions included:

- The pivotal role of the foreign trade sector in developing the national economy.
- Basic infrastructure as a lever for economic and social development.
- Major directions of the national tourism policy.
- Education reform, focusing on developing pioneering schools and centres of excellence at universities to cultivate the future generations of Morocco.
- Public policy aimed at strengthening the right to health and promoting principles of dignity and social justice.
- The national industrial system as a vector of economic growth.
- Economic and financial indicators and efforts to enhance Morocco's international standing.
- Public policy dedicated to establishing equity and social protection.
- Economic and financial performance and its impact on investment and employment dynamics in our country.

During this legislative year, parliamentary questions of all types were the most significant aspect of parliamentary oversight. Such questions highlight the active engagement of Ministers with the issues raised by Members of Parliament, which are of great interest to citizens. The recorded figures indicate that the government received a total of 6893 oral questions throughout the year and responded to 1483 of them.

Throughout, the fourth legislative year, the government maintained a strong presence and responsiveness to all questions on the agenda. The plenary oral question sessions featured open and transparent discussions, fostering dialogue and strengthening democratic values.

Although both Houses of Parliament established a quota system to schedule oral questions every week, government members demonstrated notable responsiveness to urgent oral questions, recognizing their relevance and importance. The government expressed its willingness to answer 774 urgent oral questions; however, the two Houses scheduled only 503 of these urgent questions. It is important to note that the quota system implemented by both parliamentary Houses often constrained the government's ability to increase its response rate to this category of parliamentary questions.

Written questions have significant popularity during the current legislative term (2021–2026), particularly among Members of the House of Representatives. This trend can be attributed to the fact that written questions are not subject to the quota system applied to oral questions in both Houses. Additionally, the format of written questions appeals to many members

These questions primarily focused on issues related to regional and national public affairs, a fact confirmed by all relevant statistics. By closure of the Spring parliamentary session on July 22nd, 2025, the government had responded to 5814 out of 8255 written questions received, resulting in a response rate of 70.43%.

On another front, the government actively addressed requests for urgent and general debate topics, providing information, data, and updates in response to 61 requests submitted by government members.

Regarding commitments tracked by both Houses of Parliament during Ministers' responses to oral questions in their respective sectors, the government undertook various measures related to 164 commitments.

As for the government commitments monitored by the House of Representatives during permanent committee meetings (examining issues which fall within its specialization), the relevant Ministers provided updates on 22 out of 55 commitments recorded during this legislative year.

The permanent parliamentary committees play a vital role in overseeing government activities and enhancing parliamentary life. Several government members delivered presentations on significant issues within their sectors during 24 committee meetings held this legislative year. The government responded to 117 out of 234 requests submitted by various parliamentary groups and parties in both Houses.

Furthermore, during the examination of subordinate budgets related to the annual Finance Law, government members addressed key files linked to national and sectoral policies. The permanent parliamentary committees also discussed various topics of keen interest to Members of Parliament, based on the aforementioned presentations. Notable topics included:

- The National Tourism Strategy 2023–2026
- Morocco's position and initiatives in green hydrogen
- Transportation challenges in rural areas
- The government's strategy to promote the social and solidarity economy
- The financial status of the National Social Security Fund (CNSS)
- The sustainability of public finances in implementing the social protection project - University scholarships
- Pioneering Schools: Achievements and Prospects
- Freedom of Expression and Media in Promoting Human Rights
- National Strategy for Sustainable Development
- Foundations of the 2025-2027 Foreign Trade Program
- Government Measures to Support Livestock Breeders and Rebuild the National Herd
- Government Policy to Promote Investment
- Government Strategy of Employability
- Integrated Public Policy on Child Protection
- Reform of the Foreign Exchange System (the Wali of Bank Al-Maghrib)

These discussions reflect the government's commitment to addressing pressing issues and engaging with various stakeholders within Parliament. Building on this commitment, the Committee for the Control of Public Finance and Governance held eight meetings dedicated to studying thematic reports prepared by the Court of Accounts during the fourth legislative year (2024-2025). The meetings focused on the following topics:

- Agricultural Vocational Training: The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries, Rural Development, and Water and Forests delivered a keynote presentation on this subject and responded positively with committee members' observations and inquiries. The government agreed with 24 recommendations and committed to their implementation, except for the recommendation concerning the establishment of an Agricultural Vocational Training Office, due to the complexity of such an undertaking generated by the involvement of multiple stakeholders and the extended timeframe required for it.

- Digital Development in Morocco: Sectoral Efforts, Lacking Coordination and Change Leadership: The Committee listened to a presentation by the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government in charge of Digital Transition and Administration Reform. Following a thorough discussion of the presentation's contents, the Minister responded to the committee members' questions and remarks.

- Delays in Implementing the Comprehensive and Integrated Reform of the National Public Institutions and Enterprises Sector: The Committee completed its study of this topic after listening to a valuable presentation from the Minister of Economy and Finance, alongside the Director of the National Agency for Strategic Management of State Contributions and Monitoring the Efficiency of Public Institutions and Enterprises. The Minister responded to various questions and inquiries from committee members.

- Financial Governance of the Moroccan Agency for Energy Efficiency: Achievements and Future Work Programs: This topic was presented by the Minister of Energy Transition and Sustainable Development at the request of the Socialist Group the Federation of the Opposition. The presentation, backed up by detailed data and figures, was delivered in the presence of the Director General of the Moroccan Agency for Energy Efficiency. After discussing the contents of the presentation, the Minister addressed the observations and inquiries raised by committee members.

To expand the domain of parliamentary oversight of government work in the House of Representatives, the government positively responded to two requests for temporary investigative missions. These include one established by the Committee on Productive Sectors regarding "The Contribution of the OFPRA Program to Reviving the Labor Market in Morocco," and another set up by the Committee on Education, Culture, and Communication concerning "The Status of School Canteens." It is noteworthy that both temporary investigative missions are in progree.

Additionally, the government participated in discussions regarding the report from the temporary investigative mission formed by the Committee on Infrastructure, Energy, Mines, Environment, and Sustainable Development on the "National Company of Motorways" during committee sessions held on January 28th, 2025, and February 4th, 2025.

Similarly, the government responded positively to the discussion of the report from the temporary investigative mission conducted by the Committee on Education, Culture, and Communication concerning the "Conditions and Circumstances of Residence in University Dormitories," during the plenary session convened on April 22nd, 2025, in the House of Representatives.

At the request of the Minister of National Education, Preschool, and Sports, members of the Committee on Education, Culture, and Communication conducted field visits on May 13th, 2025, to the Mohamed Al-Faqih Al-Ghazi Pioneering Primary School and the Great Maghreb Pioneering Middle School in Rabat.

III. Public Policy Evaluation, the fourth legislative year (2024–2025) of the eleventh legislative term (2021–2026) was marked by the government's ongoing and positive engagement with various requests from temporary thematic working groups in both Houses of Parliament. This included participation in meetings where reports or statements were presented by Ministers and officials from governmental sectors and public institutions, as well as facilitating field visits for members of these groups to various central administrations, external services, and regional and provincial delegations. These visits aimed to monitor the implementation of public policies and related evaluation programs.

In accordance with the second paragraph provisions of Article 101 of the Constitution and Chapter Six of Part Five of the House of Councillors' internal regulations (specifically Articles 308 to 316), the House of Councillors convened on July 22, 2025, for an annual session to discuss and evaluate “public policies related to investment and employment”. During this session, key government members, including the Minister of Equipment and Water, the Minister of Economic integration, micro-Enterprises, Employment, and Competences, the Minister of Industry and Trade, the Minister of Higher Education, Scientific Research and Innovation, and the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government in charge of Investment, Convergence, and Evaluation of Public Policy, delivered presentations addressing various issues related to investment and employment in Morocco.

They emphasized the government’s commitment to implementing administrative and legal obligations aimed at enhancing public policy integration, strengthening territorial attractiveness for investment, promoting social and spatial justice, and encouraging scientific research, innovation, and competitiveness while attracting investments with added value.

Additionally, three temporary thematic working groups have completed their work and produced reports on the following topics: "Measures to Regulate Prices of Basic Consumer Goods in the National Market," "Artificial Intelligence: Prospects and Impacts," and "The Literacy Program 2017-2021." These reports were referred to the Bureau of the House of Representatives in accordance with Article 78 of its Internal Rules, which stipulates that reports prepared by temporary thematic working groups be submitted to the Bureau for follow-up.

Currently, seven temporary thematic working groups in both Houses of Parliament are working on the following subjects:

*In the House of Representatives:

- The Green Morocco Plan
- The National Sports Strategy 2008-2020
- African Affairs
- Equality and Parity
- Energy Transition

*In the House of Councillors: *

- Business Climate and Regional Development
- The primary national issue for Morocco: the Kingdom's Territorial Unity.

To ensure the success and facilitate the work of these temporary thematic working groups in preparing their reports, Ministers have made commendable efforts by providing necessary data and information, along with well-structured presentations supported by accurate indicators and statistics on various aspects related to the concerned topics.

And God is the best grantor of success

They commended the work of the group and valorized the efforts it made throughout its mandate, through hearings and visits organized with the various partners and stakeholders. The Council also heard speeches from the ministers concerned with the subject of the session, who responded to the different proposals and recommendations contained in the report. All parties emphasized that the choice of investment and employment by the House of Councillors as the theme of the annual session for evaluating public policies was a wise one, given the importance attached to investment by all stakeholders, foremost among them His Majesty King Mohammed VI, may God assist him. It was underlined that investment plays a key role in driving the national economy and creating sustainable job opportunities. The session further stressed the importance of promoting scientific research and innovation to strengthen competitiveness, attract high value-added investments, enhance the complementarity of public policies, and reinforce the territorial attractiveness of investment.

Mr. Mustapha BAITAS

Minister Delegate to the Head of Government in charge of Relations with Parliament Government Spokesman

FOURTH: ACTIVITY OF THE MINISTER DELEGATE TO THE HEAD OF GOVERNMENT IN CHARGE OF RELATIONS WITH PARLIAMENT, GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN DURING THE FOURTH LEGISLATIVE
YEAR 2024-2025

During the fourth legislative year 2024–2025 of the eleventh legislature (2021–2026), the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government, in charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman did not spare made effort to strengthen the relationship of cooperation between the executive and legislative institutions. The aim was to implement the government’s commitments set out in the government program, complete the process of updating and modernizing the national legal framework in line with Morocco’s economic, social, and cultural developments, enhance the Kingdom’s standing and influence at the regional, continental, and international levels, and respond positively to the requests and questions of Members of Parliament.

The ministry also supported the endeavour of thematic working groups tasked with discussing and evaluating public policies, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and in line with Decree No. 2.22.771 of 18 Rajab 1444 (February 19, 2023) on defining the powers and organization of the Ministry in Charge of Relations with Parliament, particularly Article 1, which stipulates that the Ministry shall:

- Represent the government on an ongoing basis in Parliament;
- Accompany the work of both Houses of Parliament and monitor their diplomatic activity;
- Facilitate dialogue between the executive and legislative branches;
- Monitor the activities of regional and international parliaments.

In this regard, the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government, in charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman has carried out the tasks entrusted to it by representing the government, accompanying the Minister in parliamentary proceedings, and overseeing its work in the fields of legislation, oversight, and evaluation of public policies.

1. Continuous Representation of the Government in Parliament and Monitoring its Work

As the government’s representative in Parliament, the Minister Delegate in Charge of Relations with Parliament ensured the presence and participation of ministers during the study and voting of draft laws and legislative proposals submitted to the plenary sessions, as well as during the weekly oral sessions and the annual sessions dedicated to discussing and evaluating public policies. The Ministry undertook this role by:

- The presence and follow-up of the Minister, as well as the implementation of the decisions issued by the Conference of Presidents of both Houses of Parliament regarding legislation and the management of discussions in plenary sessions;
- Informing the relevant government sectors of the dates of plenary sessions and the legal texts included in them, and ensuring continuous participation in their work. (The number of these sessions reached 120 plenary sessions, including 45 legislative sessions);
- Corresponding with the General Secretariat regarding the final version of the texts definitively adopted by both Houses of Parliament (50 laws);
- Arranging substitutes for members of the government in cases where a minister was unable to attend meetings of the standing committees, temporary thematic working groups, or plenary sessions;
- Drawing attention to procedural issues that may arise during plenary sessions;
- Accompanying legislative texts from the time they are referred to Parliament until their final adoption by both Houses.

In line with Article 23 of Organic Law No. 065.13 on the organization and functioning of the government and the legal status of its members, which requires the holding of a monthly meeting to study Draft Laws submitted by Members of Parliament from both the majority and the opposition, the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government in Charge of Relations with Parliament presented finalized legislative proposals for government review. Over the course of nine (9) meetings, 97 legislative proposals were studied, in implementation of the government's commitment to engage with parliamentary legislative initiatives in a spirit of coordination and cooperation with the legislative institution.

2. Monitoring and Supporting the Work of Temporary Thematic Working Groups and Standing Parliamentary Committees in the Areas of Legislation, Oversight, and Evaluation of Public Policies.

The Minister Delegate to the Head of Government, in charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman ensured close monitoring and support of all the work of the temporary thematic working groups and standing committees in both Houses of Parliament, in the fields of legislation, oversight, and evaluation of public policies. The total number of their meetings during the fourth legislative year 2024–2025 exceeded 350 meetings. In this regard, the Ministry undertook the following tasks:

- Informing the relevant government sectors of the programming related to the study of draft laws and legislative proposals in the competent standing committees;
- Referring requests for convening meetings of standing committees for the presentation and discussion of reports by ministers;
- Referring requests for convening meetings of temporary thematic working groups for the presentation and discussion of reports by ministers;
- Coordinating with parliamentary advisors and the administrative departments concerned in Parliament regarding the work of the standing committees and the temporary thematic working groups;
- Preparing reports on the progress achieved in the study of draft laws and legislative proposals within the standing committees of both Houses of Parliament;
- Preparing information notes at the close of the two legislative sessions ;
- Producing the annual report on government activity in Parliament.

3. Monitoring the Programming of Plenary Sessions Dedicated to Oversight of Government Action, Legislation, and Evaluation of Public Policies

In this regard, the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government, in charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman undertook the following:

- Government, either by determining the government body responsible for responding to them or by scheduling them in the sessions dedicated to the Head of Government's responses;
- Following up on and monitoring the implementation of the decisions of the Conference of Presidents concerning the organization of these plenary sessions, and informing the relevant government sectors accordingly;
- Informing the relevant government sectors of the date of the weekly session and the scheduled oral questions;
- Informing the relevant government sectors of the date of the annual session dedicated to the discussion and evaluation of public policies, to ensure their participation;
- Ensuring continuous follow-up of the weekly sessions dedicated to oral questions and the other plenary sessions devoted to legislation, government oversight, and the evaluation of public policies.

4. Facilitating Dialogue between the Executive and Legislative Branches

In addition to coordinating relations between the government and Parliament, the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government in Charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman, plays a key role in facilitating dialogue and cooperation between the different components of the government and the legislative institution. For this purpose, the Minister took part in the meetings of the Conference of Presidents and in the coordination, This representation extends to ministers in both Houses of Parliament, whether in providing answers to oral questions during plenary sessions or during the study of draft supplementary budgets and legislative texts in standing committees and plenary sessions.

The Ministry also initiated a communication meeting with parliamentary advisors at the annex of the Head of Government's Office on April 7, 2025, to establish effective communication and a regular cooperative relationship between the parliamentary administration in particular, the Parliament in general, and the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government, in charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman, along with the parliamentary Councillors. The goal was to serve common interests in a positive and open spirit toward all initiatives aimed at developing the relationship between the government and Parliament. This initiative reflects the Ministry's commitment to a participatory methodology for structuring the relationship between government sectors and both Houses of Parliament, and to enhance accumulated experience in managing this relationship. It aims to strengthen the roles of parliamentary affairs officers and administrative staff to improve legislative and oversight performance, and to support the discussion and evaluation of public policies in compliance with the Constitution and the internal regulations of both Houses.

The Minister Delegate to the Head of Government in Charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman, described this meeting as an excellent opportunity for consultation and dialogue on issues related to coordination and cooperation between the government and Parliament. He noted that it serves both to activate the Ministry's competences and to highlight the role of parliamentary advisors, who are a fundamental pillar in ensuring a successful relationship between the government and Parliament, given the tasks they perform, which often require thorough knowledge of parliamentary mechanisms and procedures.

The Minister emphasized that these communication meetings help mobilize efforts to translate government policies into legislative, oversight, and evaluation performance, strengthen productive cooperation with the legislative authority, implement the government's legislative agenda in Parliament, and contribute to disseminating this work to the public through the media.

5. Scientific Activities and Cooperation Relations

Within the framework of its openness, especially toward the academic community, the Ministry received groups of students from various universities, schools, and national institutes for training within the Ministry's administrative facilities. The Minister Delegate to the Head of Government in Charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman, participated in several scientific activities held at Parliament, as follows:

b. The 9th International Parliamentary Forum on Social Justice, organized by the House of Councillors on February 17th, 2025, in partnership with the Economic, Social, and Environmental Council, was held in commemoration of the World Day of Social Justice under the theme: "Universal Social Protection in Morocco: A Developmental Vision with International Standards." The Minister Delegate to the Head of Government in Charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman, delivered the speech on behalf of the Head of Government. He emphasized that the royal social protection initiative, launched by His Majesty King Mohammed VI, may God assist him, constitutes a cornerstone of a comprehensive royal vision aimed at establishing the foundations of a more just, fair, and inclusive Morocco.

In this context, the Minister Delegate underlined that, following the wise guidance and vision of His Majesty, the government has placed social justice at the top of its priorities, making it a genuine governmental commitment that reflects a continuous effort to ensure fairness and equality for all members of society. He reviewed the efforts undertaken to implement this pioneering royal initiative, particularly concerning the universalization of health coverage and the implementation of the direct social support system, as core priorities.

The Minister also emphasized that the government has given utmost importance to strengthening the healthcare system through a structural vision based on three main pillars:

1. Adopting good and effective governance within the health sector ;
2. Valuing human resources as the fundamental pillar for the success of any reform;
3. Upgrading infrastructure while enhancing regional dimensions to ensure equity in the distribution of healthcare services.

In the same context, he noted that the government, in line with royal directives, is steadily advancing towards achieving social justice in the country. To ensure the success of this initiative, the government has allocated substantial financial resources, increasing the budget from MAD 25 billion in 2024 to MAD 29 billion in 2025, guaranteeing its long-term sustainability and positive impact on future generations.

C. A national conference on “The Moroccan Parliament and the Moroccan Sahara Issue: Towards Effective Parallel Diplomacy and Institutional Advocacy” was organized by the temporary thematic working group on Morocco’s Primary National Cause: The Territorial Integrity of the Kingdom in the House of Councillors on May 5, 2025. In this context, Mr. Mustapha Baines delivered a speech on behalf of Mr. Aziz Akhannouch, President of the Group National Rally of Independents (RNI), opening his remarks by highlighting the significant achievements in the Sahara issue over recent years thanks to diplomatic efforts. He emphasized that under the patronage of His Majesty King Mohammed VI, may God assist him, Morocco has, in a short period, successfully demonstrated to the world the justice of its position, the legitimacy of its rights, and the validity of the Autonomy Initiative proposed by the Kingdom. He highlighted the priority of Morocco’s national cause in parliamentary debates, parallel diplomacy, and the political parties’ engagement in international conferences and events.

Mr. Mustapha Baitas, member of the Political Bureau of the Group National Rally of Independents (RNI), also commended the achievements of royal diplomacy in recent years, noting that the Autonomy Initiative has proven its justice and credibility internationally. He highlighted the pivotal role played by the Parliament and political parties in international forums.

In conclusion, Mr. Baitas emphasized the need to maintain this momentum and continue along the same path in service of Morocco’s just national causes, expressing appreciation to Parliament and all political forces in the country for their efforts in this regard.

In the framework of consolidating relations and enhancing cooperation with friendly and brotherly countries, the Minister Delegate to the Head of Government in Charge of Relations with Parliament, Government Spokesman, received at the Ministry on April 9th, 2025, a delegation from the Reform and Modernization Committee of the National Assembly of the Republic of Zambia, chaired by Mr. M.

Frank Moyo. The discussions focused on the Moroccan parliamentary experience and the Ministry's core missions, including representing the government in Parliament, monitoring the work of both Houses, facilitating dialogue between the executive and legislative branches, and formulating government policy regarding civil society associations and NGOs concerned with public affairs.

On October 15th, 2024, the Minister also received a delegation from the Deputies' Committee of the National Assembly of Vietnam, chaired by Mr. Nguyen Tuan Anh. The discussions focused on enhancing bilateral relations, reviewing the Moroccan parliamentary experience, and exploring the Ministry's competences, which extend beyond representing the government in Parliament to coordinating work with civil society and promoting participatory democracy.

As part of strengthening diplomatic relations and in accordance with Article 68 of the Constitution, which provides for joint parliamentary sessions to hear addresses from foreign heads of state and government, President Emmanuel Macron of France delivered a speech before members of the Moroccan Parliament during a joint session in the plenary hall of the House of Representatives on Tuesday, October 29th, 2024, on the occasion of his official visit to Morocco at the invitation of His Majesty King Mohammed VI, may God assist him. The Minister Delegate, Government Spokesman, attended alongside the Head of Government and its members.

In the framework of the Ministry's participation in the 30th International Book and Publishing Fair, organized by the Ministry of Youth, Culture, and Communication under the high patronage of His Majesty King Mohammed VI, may God assist him, from April 18th to 27th, 2025, in Rabat, the Ministry organized several activities, scientific workshops, and seminars. These events brought together university researchers, political and administrative figures, experts, civil society actors, as well as officials and staff of the ministry, with the aim of highlighting the ministry's constitutional duties and roles, showcasing its fields of intervention, and promoting its work to the public and visitors.
